

Summer 1958

Sacred Concert

Victor Togni, who was leaving Pembroke for a church organist position in Ottawa, made a farewell and handed the baton to Captain James M. Gayfer of the 1st Canadian Guards Band, which shared the platform.

1000 people attended the concert, which was part of the opening ceremonies of the Pembroke Centennial. The choir performed:

Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms

Song of the Pedlar - L. William

Lullaby - Brahms

Rounds:

Are You Sleeping Brother John?

Three Blind Mice

Doubleround

Gloria - Mozart (12th Mass)

Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring - Bach

Steal Away (Ladies' Choir)

Two barbershop numbers (small group)

Come Unto Him - Handel (Messiah) - solo by Doris Gauthier
