

Winter 1981

Gilbert & Sullivan - HMS Pinafore

The Choir's first foray into musical theatre was a joint effort with the Deep River Symphony Orchestra. The production involved full staging and costumes.

It was also presented in Deep River on February 18 (Children's concert), 20 & 21.

Choral Director and Rehearsal Pianist: Robert Price

DRSO Conductor: Stephen Van Heerden

Director: Sean Noll

Choreography: Joyce Moore

Buttercup: Anne Scales

Boatswain: Arthur Coles

Dick Deadeye: Sean Noll

Ralph Rackstraw: Jay Lambie

Captain Corcoran: Peter Cowan

Josephine: Joyce Moore

Sir Joseph Porter: Larry Scales

Cousin Hebe: Patricia Duval

Carpenter's Mate: Joseph Dozois

First Lord's Sisters, His Cousins, His Aunts: Sr St Agatha, Marion Burton, Olive Coburn, Deborah Crozier, Wendy Donohue, Margaret Gervais, Ruth Grant, Rita Hemmings, Betty Hildebrandt, Margaret Humphrey, Joanne Murray, Christa Reitlingschoefer, Loreen Scales, Rose Schaefer, Monika Schmitz, Janette Smallpiece.

Sailors: Bill Collins, Bill Langley, Wilfred Moncrieff, Charles O'Connor, Bob Price, Anton Spelt, John Veen